If you are an active duty service member, a veteran or a dependent of a veteran you may be eligible for resident tuition even if you are a non-New York state resident. To be a “covered individual” you must comply with one of the following requirements:

- A Veteran who lives in New York state (regardless of his/her formal state of residence) and enrolls in the college within three years of discharge from a period of active duty service of 90 days or more.

- A spouse or child using transferred benefits who lives in New York state (regardless of his/her formal state of residence) and enrolls in the college within 3 years of the transferor’s discharge from a period of active duty service of 90 days or more.

- A spouse or child using benefits under the Marine Gunnery Sergeant John David Fry Scholarship who lives in New York state (regardless of his/her formal state of residence) and enrolls in the college within three years of the Service member’s death in the line of duty following a period of active duty service of 90 days or more.

- Any student attending NCCC who is a member or the spouse or the dependent of a member of the armed forces of the United States on full-time active duty and stationed in New York State, whether or not a resident of this state, shall be charged the tuition rate for residents.

- Any student attending NCCC in accordance with the Federal GI Bills and in compliance with all eligibility requirements thereof, whether or not a resident of this state, shall be charged the tuition rate for residents.

If you think you might qualify, contact Veteran Services in the Office of Student Development.