

Dear Students,

Given recent spikes in COVID-19 and following recommendations of SUNY, we have given faculty the option to change teaching modes to fully online after Thanksgiving (November 30) until the end of Fall semester. Ten faculty members have decided to change their current on-campus or hybrid modes to fully online. The faculty members are as follows:

Ted Skotnicki
Bridget Beilein
Patricia Trawinski
Scott Sackett
Etienne Kojza
Dave Nemi
Mark Voisinet
Bob Borgatti
Sue Brade
Jerry Truesdell

If you have one of these faculty members, please follow his or her direction regarding change of instructional mode so that you may have continued success in your course. Any problems or concerns should be relayed to the faculty member or his or her division chair.

Lydia Ulatowski
Interim Vice President of Academic Affairs

SUNY Comprehensive Mental Health and Wellness Initiatives:

SUNY Launched a Comprehensive Plan to Expand Access to Mental Health Services to Every Student.

As part of this new plan, SUNY is partnering with Thriving Campus to provide every student from SUNY's colleges and universities with access to a network of more than 6,000 licensed mental health service providers. The mobile-friendly app, already utilized at two SUNY campuses, breaks down a number of crucial, often overlooked barriers that students frequently encounter in the process of reaching out for help. By streamlining and simplifying what can be a stressful and overwhelming process, and building synergy with local mental health providers, more students will be seamlessly connected with the specific help they need, when they need it at no cost to the student. Watch this video #ReachOutSUNY for more information. SUNY cares about your health and so does NCCC.

Free Course to Help NCCC Students This Semester:

We know that this semester has been unique... to say the least! We wanted to let you know that NCCC has created a course, ACE 001 – Academic Excellence, to help our students find academic success. The course is free – that’s right, no tuition whatsoever (& no textbook cost either!). The course will focus on best practices for succeeding in college and have a special focus on succeeding in online classes.

ACE 001 – Academic Excellence is only an 8-week course that meets for 1 hour a week. You can attend this class in-person or online. The first day of class will be Tuesday, October 27, 2020.

How to Sign-Up:

1. Log into Banner Web
2. Click on “Student & Financial Aid”
3. Click on “Registration”
4. Click on “Add or Drop Classes”
5. For “Select a Term” choose “ Fall Semester, 2020”
6. At the bottom of the screen enter the CRN number 31198 (in one of the small boxes)

Please do not hesitate to contact the Academic Center for Excellence if you have any further questions. Academic Center for Excellence (716) 614-6724 / ace@niagaracc.suny.edu

Intramural/Recreation:

Contact Coach Oleski moleski@niagaracc.suny.edu if you have any interest in joining our Club Hockey team. We have 3 open spots on the team, valid physical and paperwork are necessary and there are costs that come along with playing Club Hockey.

Intramural-Recreation is also looking to hire three work study eligible workers to help in the Fitness Center and Athletic Department. Please contact Coach Oleski at moleski@niagaracc.suny.edu if you are interested.

For information regarding any of the above activities, please contact Matt Oleski at moleski@niagaracc.suny.edu
